

CONFIDENTIAL REVIEW COPY

The committee reviewed the quarterly report and the attached schedules.

Revenue grew in every region, while operating costs remained stable.

The auditors noted no material weakness in the internal controls.

Capital spending will focus on maintenance of the existing plants.

The board expects to publish the annual statements in early spring.

Questions about this summary may be sent to the finance office.

The committee reviewed the quarterly report and the attached schedules.
Revenue grew in every region, while operating costs remained stable.
The auditors marked the plan APPROVED and noted no material weakness.
Capital spending will focus on maintenance of the existing plants.
The board expects to publish the annual statements in early spring.
Questions about this summary may be sent to the finance office.